THE VISITING CONGRESSMEN HERE

Hatch entertained the party with an address on Hawaii, which was listened to with great interest and close attention by all.

The last evening on board the Buford, Col. Hepburn, on behalf of the Congressional party, presented Secretary and Mrs. McClellan with a heavy set of handsome silverware which had been purchased in San Francisco from Shreve & Company, as a token of their appreciation for the manner in which the secretary to Hawaii's Delegate to Congress had looked after their comfort and pleasure from the first to the last of the trip. The presentation was a very pretty affair and enjoyed by all.

MEMBERS OF PARTY.

The Congressional party is made up of the following persons:

Representative W. P. Hepburn and wife, Iowa.
Representative E. C. Hamilton and wife, Michigan.

Representative A. B. Capron and wife Rhode Island.

Representative A. L. Brick, wife and daughter, Indiana.

Representative D. S. Alexander and wife, New York.

Representative James H. Davidson, Wisconsin.

Representative W. L. Jones and wife, Washington.

Representative George L. Lilley and wife, Connecticut.

Representative R. D. Cole, Ohio.

Representative James C. Needham, California.

Representative J. Warren Keifer, Ohio.

Representative Charles E. Littlefield, wife and daughter, Maine.

Representative E. P. Acheson, wife and daughter, Pennsylvania.

Representative James P. Conner and wife, Iowa.

Representative Edwin Y. Webb, North Carolina.

Representative A. L. Bates and sister Pennsylvania.

Representative Charles McGavin, Illinois.

Representative George W. Norris, Nebraska.

Representative W. W. Wilson, Illinois.

Representative P. P. Campbell, Kansas.

Representative Frederick C. Stevens, Minnesota.

Senator Samuel H. Piles, Washington.

Representative J. V. Graff, wife and daughter.

Representative J. J. Fitzgerald and wife.

E. G. Lowrey, Press representative.
F. M. Hatch, wife and son.

George B. McClellan, wife and child.

The party consists of one senator and twenty-three representatives together with E. G. Lowrey, press representative.

The party comes from seventeen different States and includes members of the following Congressional committees:

Of the Senate: Pacific Island and Porto Rico, Territories, Commerce, Coast and Insular Survey, Canadian Relations.

Of the House: Rivers and Harbors, Territories, Inter-State and Foreign Commerce, Appropriations, Ways and Means, Public Buildings and Grounds, Military Affairs, Naval Officers, Claims, Judiciary, Merchant Marine and Fisheries, Agriculture, Insular Affairs.

COL. HEPBURN.

Hon. William Peters Hepburn, Representative from Iowa, and chairman of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce committee, when seen by the Star representative, inquired immediately concerning the labor conditions on the coast. When told of the numerous strikes in progress and the riots reported by the latest cable dispatches he said: "I sincerely hope that all trouble will be arrested and sent to the penitentiary. I am not opposed to labor organizations but such lawlessness is a disgrace to the country. Irresponsible leaders are largely responsible and they should be severely dealt with."

Col. Hepburn is accompanied by his wife. He is much interested in Hawaii, and from his high standing as a Republican leader in the House of Representatives his coming is to be considered most fortunate for the Territory.

REPRESENTATIVE BRICK.

Hon. Abraham Lincoln Brick, Representative from Indiana, who is a member of the Appropriation committee, and Committee on Territories, is accompanied by his wife and daughter. Regarding Hawaii, he said: "I have long been interested especially in these islands and was glad to be able to visit them. From the fact that I am one of the oldest members of the Territories committee in the House I have had frequent occasion to examine closely into affairs here. I assisted in drafting the Organic Act under which the Territory was established. Representatives Hamilton, Capron and Webb are other members of the committee who are also with the party, and we expect to profit much by our visit here for future legislation concerning Hawaii."

REPRESENTATIVE COLE.

Hon. Ralph D. Cole, Representative from Ohio, is a member of the Irrigation and Arid Lands Committee and of the Territories committee. "This isn't altogether a pleasure trip," he said.
"There is a great deal of interest being taken in the past few years in Hawa-ian affairs, in the Capitol, and in fact all over the United States. You people don't want to get it in your heads that you are being forgotten, for such is far from being the case. This trip is evident of that and you may be sure that you are to be well taken care of."

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIDSON.

Representative J. H. Davidson from Wisconsin, member of the rivers and harbors committee, is enthusiastic over the possibilities of this Territory and of Honolulu in particular, although he has not yet seen Hilo.

Swinging his arm comprehensively to indicate the harbor's curve, he said:
"This all needs to be widened away out to the bar. When that is done you will have a magnificent harbor and you will need accommodations for a large number of ships before many years. I have always been deeply interested in the improvement of Honolulu, Hilo and Pearl Harbor."

REPRESENTATIVE STEVENS.

Representative F. C. Stevens, is interested in committee work in immigration and naturalization and interstate and foreign commerce.

"I am going everywhere the opportunity offers—I want to see everything," said Mr. Stevens. "This is a country we ought to know more about; Hawaii is of immense importance to the United States; this outlying Territory has a wonderful future and the opening of the Panama canal will make of this city one of the most important in the world and perhaps the most important point in the Pacific ocean."

REPRESENTATIVE ACHESON.

Representative E. F. Acheson of Pennsylvania, accompanied by his two charming daughters, was deeply impressed by the first glimpse of Honolulu and its surroundings. He is a member of the Rivers and Harbors committee and as such takes a particular interest in the development of Honolulu harbor.

"Since the money for the improvement of this harbor has been appropriated," he said, "I suppose the work will now go right along in quick order until completed. Hilo harbor improvements, I understand are very necessary and should not be delayed."

REPRESENTATIVE GRAFF.

Representative Joseph V. Graff of Illinois is interested in fortifications.
"Fortifications here will not be long delayed," he says. His wife and daughter accompany Mr. Graff.

REPRESENTATIVE KEIFER.

General J. Warren Keifer, Representative from Ohio, where Presidents are made, an appropriation committee man, said this morning that he had already seen so much in the act of coming ashore that he wanted to think it over before talking. His headquarters will be at the Young Hotel.

REPRESENTATIVE HAMILTON.

Representative E. L. Hamilton is from Michigan. He and his wife will be the guests of Judge and Mrs. Whitney while here.

REPRESENTATIVE CAPRON.

Representative A. B. Capron, from Rhode Island, is particularly interested in the efficiency of the navy in the Pacific ocean. He is who has so strongly urged the increase of the navy. His wife accompanies him. He is on the committees of foreign affairs, military and Territories and means to make a thorough study of conditions while here.

REPRESENTATIVE ALEXANDER.

Representative D. L. Alexander of New York is a member of the Rivers and Harbors committee who expects to gather much valuable first hand information here to the profit of the Territory and the nation. Mrs. Alexander accompanies her husband.

CONGRESSMEN WON'T BALK AT ROUGH TRIP

REPRESENTATIVES DECLARE THEY ARE HERE FOR BUSINESS AND TO LEARN ALL THEY CAN.

Most of the Congressional members in the Buford party were interviewed yesterday to make the assertion that their object in coming on the present trip was far from being merely for pleasure, and declared that they meant to make the full tour of the Territory as planned for by the general committee, notwithstanding the report that the program for the jaunt was consid-

Memorial Drinking Fountain For Puunene

BERTHA M. BOYE COMPLETES THE SCULPTURAL MODEL FOR H. P. BALDWIN.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—In the realm of sculpture a clever piece of work is being completed or rather, re-completed by Bertha M. Boye. It is a bronze drinking fountain, five and a half feet high on the pedestal. This was ordered of Miss Boye over a year ago by H. P. Baldwin of the Alexander Baldwin firm of Hawaii, to be placed on the two main cross streets of Puunene, Island of Maui. Mr. Baldwin wished it as a memorial of his little grandson, and Miss Boye has designed the figure of a child holding a cup.

The original order was ready for delivery at the time of the disaster, but was ruined in the Hopkins Institute, where it had been on exhibit.

Miss Boye is a pupil of Arthur Matthews, with whom she studied drawing, painting and sculpturing to a finished degree, though also receiving some instruction from Douglas Tilden.

The design and execution of this fountain are extremely graceful, the child's contour showing good expression. Miss Boye has a studio at 1673 Hayes street containing many evidences of her handiwork accomplished since the fire, all former efforts having been lost in the first studio at Kearny and Clay streets, the early center of a small artist colony.

COMMISSIONER GOES WITH BUFORD'S CARGO

E. R. JOHNSTONE, REPRESENTING CHRISTIAN HERALD, A GUEST OF FRIENDS WHILE IN PORT.

The one man on board the U. S. transport Buford, who is associated with the real purpose of the voyage, is E. R. Johnstone, who as representative of the Christian Herald is in charge of the cargo of food supplies for the starving millions in the famine districts of China. The other dozen or more passengers are army officers and relatives to whom the trip of the Buford happened to come at a convenient time.

The Christian Herald of New York took the lead in responding to President Roosevelt's appeal in behalf of the starving Chinese, and altogether raised over $200,000 of the nearly $450,- 000 which was contributed through the National Red Cross Society, and other organizations, and converted into flour and other foods.

Mr. Johnstone, who was sent in charge of the cargo will see to its safe arrival and in a general way to its distribution where it will do the most good. Of the four or five millions people who have been in danger of actually starving to death, this cargo will be sufficient to save at least one million until time of next harvest.

Mr. Johnstone was formerly in the service of the Associated Press, and later was managing editor of the Cleveland Leader, and is a very pleasant gentleman. This evening he will be entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs.
F. M. Hatch, who were passengers on the Buford from San Francisco.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT YESTERDAY

ONE DIVORCE GRANTED—AN AP-PEAL TO BE TAKEN AND SOME PROBATE MATTERS.

The defendant in the case of D. L.
Peterson vs. Charles A. Frazier has filed his bill of exceptions. This is an appeal from the recent judgment of $50 obtained against Frazier.

Andrew Cox has filed a petition asking that the will of the late J. F.
Anderson the Mexican war veteran who died at Waialua recently, be admitted to probate. Under the will the property which consists of $4,500 in real estate and $8,000 in personal property, including $5,000 cash is given to Cox.

H. Nishitani has filed his final accounts as administrator of the estate of J. H. Nishitani, deceased and asked for his discharge. The estate is valued at $3338.67 from which $338.67 was paid.
The motion of J. W. Leonhart to begin an action as intervenor in the foreclosure suit brought by the trustees of the Allen Estate against the Hawaiian Land Company and others, has been granted by Judge Robinson and the action was begun today.

Abraham Nakea was today granted a divorce from Mary on the grounds of desertion.

The case of W. R. Cattle vs. H. T.
Marsh, et al, was continued by Judge Lindsay this morning, till moved on.

TORE WIFE'S HAIR AND GOES TO JAIL

ANOTHER MAN GETS THREE TIMES AS MUCH FOR BIFFING FELLOW IN THE NECK.

A woman's crowning glory may be her hair, but Kaimapehu either wanted to uncrown his wife or mistook her head for a garden-patch that needed weeding, for in a moment of aberration induced by strong drink he did his best to tear her hair out by the roots. She appealed to the police and the brute was before the district magistrate yesterday. At the last moment the wife pleaded for her mate, begging the leniency of the court. Ten days in jail and costs was what it cost him for his hair-pulling.

Another chap, Henry Charnier, experienced an irresistible impulse to strike one De Mello in the base of the brain. He gave way to the feeling and it cost him 30 days on the reef.
So, according to today's quotations, banging a man in the neck is three times as bad as ruining a lady's hair.

Kalanu got 30 days for riding in a Jap's back without the latter's permit.
Dederichsen is said to have assaulted a woman but the latter was too drunk at the time to remember enough about the affair to prosecute.

Visitors Upset Plans Of Committee

McCLELLAN ASKED TWO DAYS REST FOR PARTY, BUT THEY WON'T HAVE IT THAT WAY.

The Congressional party isn't tired and doesn't want to rest and what's more they don't intend to spend the first two or three days of their visit sitting around or sleeping. As a result of this very unanimous declaration the entertainment committee finds that it must get busy and plan for something to keep the visitors interested tomorrow and the next day.

This had not been counted on in planning the entertainment, owing to the cable from Secretary George B. Mc-Clellan, just before the party sailed, asking that two days be allowed the junketers for resting up. But the crowd had all the resting they wanted on the eight days on shipboard and owing to the splendid weather which prevailed all the way, suffered none of the usual discomforts usually an unavoidable part of such trips. As a result they are not only in the best of health and spirits, but their enforced inactivity now calls for some outlet for their surplus energy.

Very shortly after the party was distributed in their quarters in the various hotels and homes, they were out about town, and before noon had decided to descend in force on Waikiki Beach this afternoon. All of them are just arrived from a long sleigh of ice and snow, and the temptation of our summer climate is too much for even the most staid, and the first afternoon in Hawaii will be spent in play. Most of them expressed much eagerness to try the bathing and surf-boating.

In the meantime the executive committee will get busy and before the days is over, something will have been arranged for tomorrow and Friday, when the party will then leave for Kauai.

It was at first supposed that many would probably not take this trip, but from general expressions heard on the subject today it is likely that almost all will want to go. "We don't want
